

amphion. IS LOOKING FOR AN INTERNET PRODUCER.

(DECEMBER 09)

FUNCTION.

We are looking for an entrepreneurial individual to take up the role as Internet producer of several prestigious, high-profile Internet projects at our Antwerp office.

You need to be a coach and motivator who brings out the best of a mixed team of creatives and tech wizards. A project manager whose thorough methodology makes the production process run smoothly like a well oiled motor. Someone who takes up responsibility from A to Z and loves it when a plan comes together!

PROFILE.

You have at least 3 years Interactive- agency experience.

You have the creative, technical and strategic insights to achieve challenging client demands.

You have strong Internet communication insight/feel, and know why some ideas will work, and others are not going to make it past PowerPoint.

You know both ends of the Internet spectrum, and:

1. You have enough technical expertise and common sense to challenge a programmer when he is doing something very complicated just because he can.
2. You have a sense for aesthetics and design, and pack enough ammo to be able to shoot a designer off his lofty cloud.

You are an excellent communicator in Dutch, English and French.

OFFER.

- An impressive list of clients and challenging projects/brands to work for.
- A stimulating environment and great colleagues.
- A competitive package and growth potential, beyond the borders of the traditional (and dated) agency structure.
